

John P. O'Brien

Mayor

Giuseppe Donatelli

Board of Orphans Director

City of New York — Municipal Board of Orphans

DEED OF ADOPTION

This Deed of Adoption made and entered into by and between Oliver Warbucks, a single man, of New York City, Borough of Manhattan, New York, party of the first part, and Annie (Last Name Unknown), a child of unknown parentage, 11 years of age, party of the second part, who has officially a ward of the City of New York, Municipal Board of Orphans, party of the third part. Witnesseth that the said party of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of One Dollar to her paid by the said party of the first part, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged by the party of the third part, the love and affection he bears to the said Annie (Last Name Unknown), party of the second part, has adopted and by these presents does adopt said Annie (Last Name Unknown), as and for his child and heir, as fully as he is by law empowered to do.

And the said party of the third part, for and on account of the consideration above expressed, does consent to the adoption of the said Annie (Last Name Unknown), the party of the second part, by Oliver Warbucks, the party of the first part as aforesaid, and does forever release and resign until the said party of the first part all legal rights and privileges to the care, custody and control he has or may have to or over the said Annie (Last Name Unknown) as her father or otherwise, and the said party of the first part agrees to support, maintain and educate the said Annie (Last Name Unknown) and bestow upon her the care and treatment due from parent to child.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, said parties have hereunto set their hands this 23rd day of December, 1933.

Oliver Warbucks

Giuseppe Donatelli

Oliver Warbucks

Giuseppe Donatelli

HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGED: by Agatha Hannigan, acting superintendent of New York Municipal Orphanage #16, Saint James Place, New York City.
